

An exciting (ecumenical) Continuing Education opportunity for ministry personnel and church leaders interested in small church ministry.

Former United Church Moderator David Giuliano is planning to host a Facilitated Learning Circle by telephone conference call.

The group will meet monthly by toll-free conference call -- he's hoping to start in February and continue meeting until June.

Here's the information about the Learning Circle:

Small is Beautiful

Cost: $50

Details: You are invited to join 6 - 8 colleagues for five, monthly, telephone conversations. We will share stories, explore patterns, attend to the Spirit and be encouraged by a circle of friends who are also serving The Body of Christ in small communities of faith (less than 80 souls on Sundays).

Online signup: at our project website. Click here: www.united-in-learning.com/smallisbeautiful

Facilitator: These calls will be facilitated by David Giuliano, pastor, spiritual companion, writer and immediate past Moderator of The United Church of Canada. David has been in ministry with St. John's United Church, in Marathon ON for almost 25 years.
